ARE YOU GOING HOUSEKEEPING?

PAUL WAGNER

Can furnish you with your kitchen utensils as well as parlor ornaments.

REMOVAL OF FAMOUS.

Our kind patrons and the public in general will please take notice that we have removed our store (The Famous) from No. 5 Commerce street to No. 235 Commerce street, next door to A. B. Frank & Co. Besides our former stock we can now offer for sale a new line of goods, which we, in our new stand offer at surprisingly low prices. Come one, come all, and be convinced.

I. MARKS & CO.

The Banks to Close.
To-morrow being Washington's birthday—a legal holiday—the banks will be closed.

W. H. Maverick vs. Ed. Steves, Sr., being an injunction suit for nuisance for the erection of a building.

Made His Threats.
A certain member of the grand jury made his threats, and bragged about what he would do if he was City Engineer. He has partly carried out his threats.

Leo Lebrun, drunk, $5; Tiburcio Vasquez, disorderly, $10; Harriet Williamson, disorderly, $5; Charles DeVore, striking, $5; Pat McCarthy, quarreling, fined $5.

Deaths.
John Burns, aged 46 years, died on the 19th, in the second ward, from consumption and paralysis.

Victoria Flores y Luna, aged 7 years and 10 months, died on the 21st, in the second ward, of infant.

Married.
Mr. Lawson Hagy and Miss Lulu D. Hanzel were united in matrimony last night at the residence of the bride's parents, on Dolores street, by the Rev. Father Pfefferkorn. The Louny was kindly remembered with some nice cake and wine.

It Makes Them Feel Glad.
The fact that the grand jury found a bill against the editors and proprietors of the Louny, for alleged libel, seems to make the Express feel extremely glad. Poor fellow! misery likes company. The Louny is a thorn in your side and will live many long years to prick you.

No clue as yet has been found leading to the detection of the thieves who are continually raiding people's larders, carrying off every eatable in the house. Mr. G. Castaneda has been the last victim. His residence was entered on Monday and all the provisions were carried off, together with the clothes which were hanging out on the line to dry.

Why Not Pitch Into Them.
One of the members of the grand jury yesterday said to a Louny representative: "Why don't you pitch into the Mayor and all the officers for not enforcing the law and falling in attending to their duties?" And the Louny man replied: "And have the whole gang come down with their shot guns, and after falling to kill us off, will go before the grand jury and you fellows indict us for libel."

Real Estate Transfers.
Maria Antonia Ruiz de Herrera to Francisco Herrera, land in Bexar county, being a subdivision of No. 1 of the F. A. Ruiz survey, on the Medina river, $2.

B. Manken and wife to Miss Mary Beyer, land in Bexar county, being part of survey No. 173, beginning at southwest corner of said survey, $10.

John Hatch and wife to C. D. Beck, portion of survey No. 12, originally granted to John Coker, $1500.

Wounded by a Lunatic.
A Mexican lunatic at the poor house, yesterday, assaulted Mr. Baumgartner, a guard, with an axe, cutting him on the head and shoulders very badly. Mr. Baumgartner and another guard went to the lunatic's assistance, when the lunatic attacked them. The two gentlemen finally, with the aid of rocks and sticks, succeeded in knocking the man down and securing him in confinement.

LIGHT FLASHES.

What the Reporters Learned on Their Tour Through the City.

—A large English stock company is being started.
—Ed. Lodge No. 35, Knights of Pythias, meet to-night.

—Minnie Hauk is booked for Turner hall for the first week in March.

—Jumbo and Miss Snowball held down the box at the variety last night.

—There will be a masquerade ball at Jones' garden next Sunday night.

—Hal Gosling brought in four Mexicans charged with smuggling yesterday.

—Excursionists are moving toward the Crescent City to take in the Mardi-Gras festivities.

—The city is promised quite a number of damage suits on account of muddled city surveys.

—Mr. Nicholas Danken was the successful bidder Tuesday night for the bar privileges at Turner hall.

—Summers & Uehlinger are preparing for their summer night's concert season, to commence about March 1.

—The Mexican Social club compliments the Louny with an invitation to attend a hop at the Casino, February 23.

—The grand jury was partial towards the Louny. The Express charged Mr. John Copeland with dishonesty, but the jury did not see any libel in that.

—The following are the judges of election on the sewerage appropriation: Ward No. 1, Henry Colmann; Ward No. 2, C. G. Artzt; Ward No. 3, Ed. Rischel; Ward No. 4, C. K. Brenneiman.

—The San Antonio club gave another of its elegant receptions last evening. It was largely attended and hugely enjoyed, as was to be expected from the reputation of the club.

—Fred Kerble, the genial proprietor of the San Pedro springs, celebrated his 40th birthday yesterday afternoon with a number of his friends. Dancing and champagne pushed the honored host on his first tilt with the year 41.

—Gallagher, the ex-Alderman and genial gentleman at the International depot, has inaugurated a new drink—that of Mexican messal cocktail. Gallagher is entirely international in his drinks when Harry Baum spreads two flags.

—The Relief committee on getting up an entertainment for the Ohio flood sufferers could call upon the management of the Vaudeville and procure talent on short notice for a first-class show. Mr. Simms has already signified his willingness to assist.

—One of the County Assessors employed in the pursuit of the value of taxable property is confident that next year's tax list will be based upon an official valuation of assessment at $22,000,000. Compute this at 40 per cent. discount and good Lord! how we grow and wax rich and fat!

—Mme. Donaldson's last masquerade at the Arbellier Verein hall last evening was a most magnificent success. Her pupils and the friends of the pupils, besides many others, undertook last evening to show their appreciation of Mme. Donaldson's services, and by the audience assembled they certainly succeeded.

—There was a furious runaway from Steves' lumber yard last evening about 6 o'clock. The buggy which was in the wake of the scampering horse lost its off front wheel, and in this dilapidated condition turned the corner of Alamo street, and in this battered condition proceeded to the stable. Twenty dollars will repair all damages.
